

Annual Organizational Meeting, Election of Officers

At the first regular meeting at which newly elected board members are seated in election years and at the first regular meeting in December in non-election years, the board will elect from among its members a president and a vice president to serve one-year terms. Officers will not be elected following the appointment of a director to fill a vacancy on the board unless a majority of the board is appointed.

If a board member is unable to continue to serve as an officer, a replacement will be elected immediately. In the absence of both the president and the vice president, the board will elect a president pro tempore who will perform the functions of the president during the latter's absence.

The superintendent will act as board secretary. In order to provide a record of the proceedings of each meeting of the board, the superintendent will appoint a recording secretary of the board.

The legislative representative will be elected from among board members at the first regular meeting of the year in even numbered years and will serve for a period of two years.

The normal order of business will be modified for the annual organizational meeting by considering the following matters after the approval of the minutes of the previous meeting.

The board of director positions will be voted on by roll call.

- A. Welcome and introduction of newly elected board members by the president.
- B. Call for nominations for president to serve during the ensuing year.
- C. Election of a president.
- D. Assumption of office by the new president.
- E. Call for nominations for vice president to serve during the ensuing year.
- F. Election of a vice president.
- G. Call for nominations for WIAA representative.
- H. Election of WIAA representative.

Policies will continue from year to year and board to board until and unless the board changes them.
